Trust members can keep their doctors and hospitals

The Aetna Medicare Advantage plan is a preferred provider organization (PPO) plan. It has a large, national network. The plan lets members use doctors and hospitals in or out of the Aetna Medicare network. Trust members can see out-of-network doctors as long as they're eligible to receive Medicare payment and agree to accept the Aetna plan. However, retirees living in PPO service areas will pay less for care when they stay in network. Look on pages 10 – 11 or at aetna.ubrtrust.com for a list of counties in the PPO service area.

How to find out if a provider accepts Aetna

If members have questions about whether their doctor is in the network or accepts the plan, they can call 1-855-406-4062 (TTY: 711), Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. all time zones.

*2017 Aetna Medicare Advantage Trust group plan member satisfaction survey.

**The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) rated the plan on measures like member satisfaction and service, and helping members stay healthy and manage their long-term conditions. Every year, Medicare evaluates plans based on a 5-star rating system.

About the Aetna plan

For members that are defaulting to Aetna

1. What is changing?

Effective January 1, 2019, defaulting members will be automatically enrolled into a Trust-sponsored Aetna Medicare Advantage PPO plan, unless they choose to opt out and remain in their current coverage, if available, by contacting Retiree Health Care Connect (RHCC). This means that the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan will become the primary plan for Medicare members.

2. What if Trust members don't want the new Aetna Medicare Advantage plan?

After carefully evaluating their options, Trust members will have the opportunity to remain in their current plan or choose from other eligible health care plan options available in their area. To select a different plan, they would just need to contact RHCC at 1-866-637-7555 (TTY: 711), Monday – Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. ET, between September 4 and November 30, 2018. RHCC will provide them with the other health plan options that are available to them in their area.

3. What if Trust members try the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan and decide it's not for them?

If they feel this plan is not for them, they have the option to switch to another available plan any time during the plan year. However, they should keep in mind that they may not switch back and forth between plans more than once a year. Also know that if they opt out of the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan, any deductibles or copayments paid under the Aetna plan won't carry over to their new plan.

For members that have Aetna as an option

1. What is changing?

The Aetna Medicare Advantage plan is being offered as a medical coverage option. If Trust members enroll, the plan will be effective January 1, 2019.

2. How do Trust members enroll in the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan?

They can call Retiree Health Care Connect (RHCC) at 1-866-637-7555 (TTY: 711), Monday – Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. ET. The Trust enrollment period ends November 30, 2018, for a January 1, 2019, start date.

3. What if Trust members try the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan and decide it's not for them?

If Trust members decide this plan is not for them, they have the option to switch back to another plan option any time during the plan year. However, they should keep in mind that they may not switch back and forth between plans more than once a year. Also know that if they opt out of the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan, any deductibles or copayments paid under the Aetna plan won't carry over to their new plan.

Plan coverage

1. Can members travel outside of the U.S. and still have coverage?

Yes, emergency and urgently needed services are covered under the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan when traveling outside the U.S. Members may be required to pay the bill at the time of service and file the claim with Aetna for reimbursement. Aetna will reimburse them based on Medicare's allowable amounts at the time of service.

2. Are referrals needed?

No, the customized Aetna Medicare Advantage plan through the Trust doesn't require referrals to providers or facilities.

3. Does the plan coordinate with Veterans Affairs (VA) benefits?

Members can use both their VA and Aetna Medicare Advantage plan benefits. However, they do not coordinate with each other. This is because Medicare does not permit two federal programs to coordinate with one another.

4. How does the plan work when Trust members are traveling outside of their home state?

Trust members can access providers anywhere in the country. The plan coverage does not change when they travel to another state. This applies to all of your plan benefits, not just urgent or emergency care.

5. If hospitalized, what coverage do members receive?

If the hospitalization is the first expense of the year, members must meet their deductible. After that, they pay some coinsurance. There are also two out-of-pocket maximums that give financial protection — the primary out-of-pocket maximum and the combined out-of-pocket maximum. The primary out-of-pocket maximum includes the member's deductible and coinsurance. Once they meet their annual primary out-of-pocket maximum of $630, they won't pay any more coinsurance for the rest of the year.

The combined out-of-pocket maximum includes the member's copays, deductible and coinsurance. Once they hit their annual combined out-of-pocket maximum of $1,500, they won't pay for any covered health services for the rest of the year.

6. When members receive medical services, do they need to show their Medicare card and Aetna ID card?

No, they only need to show their Aetna ID card when they receive medical services under the new plan.

7. What happens if a member is being treated for a complex condition at the time they switch to Aetna?

A change in the medical plan doesn't mean a change in care. Members can keep the same doctors and hospitals as long as they accept Medicare and are willing to work with Aetna. If members have any more questions, they can contact the Aetna Member Services team at 1-855-406-4062 (TTY: 711). We're available Monday to Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. all time zones.

Additionally, members in the PPO plan that qualify for continuity of care support can continue to see their out-of-network providers at the in-network cost share for the first 90 days of the plan (through March 31, 2019).

Enrollment and spousal coverage

For members that are defaulting to Aetna

1. Who will be automatically enrolled in the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan?

The member, their spouse and eligible dependents who are age 65 or Medicare eligible will be automatically enrolled in the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan, starting January 1, 2019. This does not include anyone who is currently enrolled in another Medicare Advantage plan. Any dependents who aren't Medicare-eligible will remain in the current plan option elected for 2018.

If they don't want to be enrolled in the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan through the Trust, they can opt out of the plan before November 30, 2018, by calling Retiree Health Care Connect (RHCC) at 1-866-637-7555 (TTY: 711), Monday – Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. ET. RHCC will be available to take these calls after September 4, 2018.

2A. What if the Trust member is over age 65, but their spouse is under age 65?

If the Trust member is age 65 or over, or Medicare-eligible, and they're currently covered by a Trust retiree medical plan, they'll be enrolled in the Aetna Medicare Advantage through the Trust starting January 1, 2019. This does not include anyone who is currently enrolled in another Medicare Advantage plan. However, any dependents they have who are under age 65 will remain under their current plan coverage.

2B. What happens when their spouse becomes eligible for Medicare?

A few months before their spouse's 65th birthday, we'll send Aetna Medicare Advantage plan enrollment materials to their spouse so they can learn about joining the plan. Their spouse will have to call RHCC to enroll in the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan.

In-network cost share up to the plan out-of-pocket maximum of $630 may be transferred, depending on which plan they are switching from.

For members that have Aetna as an option

1. If the Trust member enrolls, will their spouse and eligible dependents also be enrolled in the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan?

The Trust member, their spouse and eligible dependents who are age 65 or Medicare eligible will be enrolled in the new Aetna Medicare Advantage plan, starting January 1, 2019. This does not include anyone who is currently enrolled in another Medicare Advantage plan. Any dependents who aren't Medicare eligible will remain in the current plan option.

2A. What if the Trust member is over age 65, but their spouse is under age 65?

If the Trust member is age 65 or over, or Medicare eligible, and they're currently covered by a Trust retiree medical plan, the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan will be effective January 1, 2019, if they enroll. This does not include anyone who is currently enrolled in another Medicare Advantage plan. However, any dependents they have who are under age 65 will remain under their current plan coverage.

2B. What happens when their spouse becomes eligible for Medicare?

A few months before their spouse's 65th birthday, we'll send Aetna Medicare Advantage plan enrollment materials to their spouse so they can learn about joining the plan. Their spouse will have to call RHCC to enroll in the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan. In-network cost share up to the plan out-of-pocket maximum of $630 may be transferred, depending on which plan they are switching from.

Costs and what members will pay

1. What are the monthly contributions for 2019?

Monthly contributions are $0 under the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan.

2. Does a member still have to pay the Medicare Part B premium?

Yes. Under Medicare rules, members must continue to pay their Part B premium to participate in the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan. If they are already enrolled in Medicare Part B, these premiums are generally deducted from their monthly Social Security check.

3. Are there any deductibles or coinsurance under the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan?

Yes. After a member meets the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan deductible, they also pay some coinsurance. Coinsurance is a percentage of the cost of medical services. Members pay coinsurance for services such as inpatient hospital care or outpatient rehabilitation. The amount of coinsurance varies whether they see in-network or out-of-network doctors. The chart below outlines member cost sharing.

2019 plan	In network	Out of network
Deductible	$245	$490
Coinsurance	Aetna pays 90%, member pays 10%	Aetna pays 70%, member pays 30%

Keep in mind that many routine and preventive services — such as annual wellness exams and immunizations — are covered at no extra cost.

4. Do members have to pay a copay?

Sometimes. Copays are flat dollar amounts that are paid up front. Copays are required for some services. For example, they'd pay a $20 copay for primary care visits and a $25 copay for specialist visits. Copays don't count toward the deductible.

5. Is there an annual limit on out-of-pocket spending under the Aetna Medicare Advantage plan?

Yes, the plan includes financial protection in the form of two out-of-pocket maximums. See the chart below for full details. The maximum depends on whether a member sees in-network or out-of-network doctors.

2019 plan	In network	Out of network
Primary out-of-pocket max	$630	$1,395
Deductible + coinsurance
Combined out-of-pocket max	$1,500	$1,500
Deductible + coinsurance + copayments

Aetna will pay 100 percent of covered medical expenses after these levels are reached.

Using current doctors

1. How do members know if their doctor is in the Aetna network?

To find out if a provider is in Aetna's Medicare Advantage network, members can just call us at 1-855-406-4062 (TTY: 711), Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. all time zones.

2. How do members know if their doctor accepts this plan?

With the Medicare Advantage PPO plan through the Trust, members can see any doctor who participates with Medicare and is willing to treat them. However, when they use doctors in Aetna's network, they'll pay less out-of-pocket. To find out if a provider accepts Aetna Medicare Advantage, members can just call us at 1-855-406-4062 (TTY: 711), Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. all time zones.
